Departmental Scholarships

Ertezek Foundation Scholarship - The Ertezek Foundation provides numerous awards each academic year. The awards are available to newly declared Theatre majors that have shown a high level of scholarship and involvement in theatre productions, and to established Theatre majors that show a financial need, a high level of scholarship, and a dedication to our productions. The monetary awards are determined on a yearly basis.

Performing Arts Scholarship - This award is available to Theatre majors that have at least a 3.00 cumulative Fort Lewis College GPA. The student must be a Colorado resident and be a participant in a number of Fort Lewis College Theatre productions. This scholarship is funded by the Colorado Commission on Higher Education. The amount paid and availability is contingent upon continued funding.

Betty Haskell Scholarship - Betty Haskell has been a supporter of the arts in the Durango area for many years. Students applying for this scholarship must have a minimum 3.00 GPA and a history of active involvement in Fort Lewis College Theatre productions. The number and amount of scholarships are determined on a yearly basis.

The Gertrude Brown Fine Arts Scholarship - A foundation scholarship for Art, Music, and Theatre was set up in the winter of 2002 by Gertrude Brown because of her passion for the arts. This scholarship of $1000 will be awarded as determined by the faculty.

Lyle Howard Theatre Scholarship - Lyle Howard was a supporter of the theatre, and left an endowment to support theatre students. The amount of this scholarship is determined on a yearly basis. Students applying for this scholarship must be either a junior or a senior Theatre major with a GPA of at least 2.50.

David Berg Scholarship - Students applying for this scholarship must be Theatre majors with a history of active involvement in Fort Lewis College Theatre productions. The amount of this scholarship is determined on a yearly basis.
